The Diocese of Vincennes (now Indianapolis) was established by decree of Gregory XVI, May 6, 1834, and the See was fixed at Vincennes. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois.

By a decree of Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the State was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne. The southern half of the State remained the Diocese of Vincennes.

The second Bishop of Vincennes, by Apostolic Brief, was permitted to establish his residence either at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; the See city, however, to remain at Vincennes. This permission was renewed to the fourth Bishop, with the exception of Lafayette.

On the appointment of the fifth Bishop, he was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, but the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By an Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the Diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief the Patron Saint of the Diocese is to remain St. Francis Xavier, title of the old Cathedral, Vincennes.

On December 19, 1944, by the Executorial Decree of the Papal Delegate, Most Reverend Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, Archbishop of Laodicea. Apostolic Delegate to the United States of North America, the Papal Decree of Pope Pius XII was solemnly proclaimed in SS. Peter and Paul Cathedral, Indianapolis, elevating Indianapolis to the status of an Archdiocese, the State of Indiana being the Metropolitan Area. The Dioceses of Evansville and Lafayette in Indiana were created by the same decree and made Suffragan Sees of Indianapolis. Upon the establishment of the Diocese of Gary on February 25, 1957, it too became a Suffragan See.

Military Vicariate

(Vicariatus Castrensis)

The Military Vicariate was canonically established on a permanent basis by a decree of the Sacred Consistorial Congregation dated September 8, 1957.

Comprises: 1. Secular and religious priests who are called on an habitual basis to the office of military chaplain for the armed forces of the United States of America; also those called on a temporary basis, during the time that they render their services. 2. Priests who are chaplains of hospitals commonly called "Veterans Administration Hospitals and Domiciliaries." 3. All the faithful: who actually serve in the armed forces of the land, air and sea: who, organized in military fashion, pertain in any way whatsoever to these same armed forces; or who are bound by the laws made for these armed forces. 4. The faithful who serve under the banners of those forces commonly known as Coast Guard, National Guard, Air National Guard or Civil Air Patrol, as long as they are living in common in a military manner. 5. The families of those listed under N. 3, namely, the wives, children, servants, relatives who habitually live with them in this country or who accompany them in any manner whatsoever outside their homeland; likewise the Catholic family of a non-Catholic serviceman under the same circumstances. 6. All the faithful of both sexes, whether they are members of a religious institute or not, who are attached to hospitals, military schools, the above-mentioned Veterans Administration Hospitals and Domiciliaries and reside there. 7. All the faithful of both sexes who dwell on military bases or in homes reserved by the civil government for military personnel and their families. On October 17, 1957 the Sacred Consistorial Congregation decreed that in all countries where the American forces are found, the following persons are subjects of the Military Vicar: a. Those who in any manner pertain officially to the Military Government; b. Those who officially accompany or assist the Military Government or the Government of Occupation, as well as those who are employed by the Military Government in an administrative capacity; c. All persons who are employed by the Government of the United States, even though they do not strictly pertain to Military Government or the Government of Occupation and all persons engaged in diplomatic and similar Missions in foreign nations; d. The members of families of the above mentioned persons residing with them in occupied territories.
